

Training Course on Organic Animal Husbandry for Veterinarians of Sikkim state inaugurated

A five days' training program (07-11, May, 2018) organized by the Joint Directorate of Extension Education on "Organic Animal Husbandry" sponsored by the Government of Sikkim, for the Veterinary Officers of Sikkim state was inaugurated today at ATIC, ICAR – IVRI. Dr B P Mishra, Joint Director (Res.) & Officiating Director, was the chief guest for the inaugural function. A total 15 veterinarians, out of which 13 are females are attending the programme.

The Course Director, Dr Mahesh Chander welcomed the Chief Guest and the participants for the program and gave a brief overview of the contents of the program and their pertinence towards the current context. Dr Mishra, the Chief Guest, in his inaugural address expressed his appreciation on the commitment by people & government of Sikkim, in transforming to a fully 'Organic State' and highlighted the critical role of veterinarians in the process. He appreciated the relevancy of the training program and spotted the significant contributions in terms of research and development by IVRI in alternative ways of approaching animal health.

