

ICAR – IVRI Participated in the Pashu Arogya Mela organized at Motihari, Bihar

ICAR – Indian Veterinary Research Institute participated in the Pashu Arogya Mela organized by ICAR in partnership with Bihar Animal Husbandry department during 28 – 29 of October, 2017 at Semouapur, Kesariya block, Motihari. Hon'ble Union Minister of Agriculture and Farmers' Welfare, Sri Radha Mohan Singh was the chief guest of the event. In his address, he emphasized the important aspects of livestock & fisheries in strengthening the livelihood of rural farmers. Sri Pramod Kumar, Hon'ble Minister of Tourism, Government of Bihar, also attended the mela and witnessed the stalls instituted by various ICAR and other institutions. A multi – disciplinary team comprising Drs S. K. Maity, A. K. Tiwari, V. B. Chaturvedi, Sanjeev Kumar, Pachaiyappan K, Brijesh Kumar & Raghuvaran along with technical and supporting staff attended the programme and advised the visiting farmers regarding various facets of animal husbandry and livestock rearing. Experts from clinical disciplines in association with the local veterinarians from the animal husbandry department attended around 150 cases dealing Gynecology, systemic infections and other clinical consultations.

