

Veterinary officers trained at ICAR-IVRI, Mukteswar campus

A batch of veterinary officers attending 10 days training on “Molecular and Serological Diagnostics of Important Zoonotic Pathogens” at CADRAD, ICAR-IVRI, Izatnagar visited ICAR-IVRI, Mukteswar campus on 18.11.2024. Dr Y.P.S. Malik, Joint Director welcomed the trainees and briefed about history and achievements of IVRI, Mukteswar. He also delivered lecture on “Zoonotic enteric pathogen: understanding their impact on human health. Other faculty at this campus, Dr. Vishal Chander and Dr Karam Chand, Senior Scientists also delivered the lecture to trainees as per schedule program. An interactive session was also arranged where trainees discussed the problem faced in the field. The faculty members emphasized on the modern animal disease diagnosis approaches with the trainees. Trainees visited the veterinary museum, cold room and different laboratories of the campus.

