

Indian Veterinary Research Institute Hebbal campus, Bengaluru

“International Women’s Day on 08-03-2023”

International Women’s day was celebrated at ICAR-Indian veterinary Research Institute, Bengaluru, on 8th March with the participation of all the staff of the campus. The function was chaired by woman chief guest Dr Vijayalakshmi Deshmane; Retired oncologist and Dr. Kamala Jayanthi; National Professor IIHR. The guest lectures by both the guests was motivating to all the women and men who were part of the celebration. Dr. Dechamma spoke on the topic significance of Women’s day and the theme Gender equality. Dr. Priyanka conducted the programme with the participation of about 50 women. Competitions like Rangoli, Elocution on topic “moral distress in Working Women”, Singing in commemoration of Late Miss Lata Mangeshkar songs was open to all men and women. And other group activities were arranged. Traditional food featuring a variety of dishes made from millets was centre of attraction of all the competitions which exhibited celebration together with International womens day and International Year of Millets 2023. A free eye check up was arranged from Agarwal eye hospital on this day. All the staff including retired staff of ICAR utilised this facility. Everybody actively participated and made use of the celebration and ended with the vote of thanks by Dr Uzma, thanking the Director and Joint Director for facilitating the International Womens day celebration.

1. Bajra Bermuda Triangle

2. Millet Pataky

5. Barroard Millet Idicer

6. Jowar roti

3. Finger Millet Halwa

4. Finger Millet Pancake

7. Finger Millet Dry Fruit Laddu

8. Millet Pongal and Millet Khejadi