

Forest plantation programme at ICAR-IVRI, Mukteswar

Mukteswar, 04.08.2023: ICAR-Indian Veterinary Research Institute, Mukteswar campus organized forest plantation programme at fallow patches of reserve forest area near katula farm on 04.08.2023. On this occasion, scientists, officers, and workers took part in the planting of various forest species like Quercus leucotrichophora (Ban Oak), Alnus nepalensis (Utis), Cedrus deodara (Deodar), Rhododendron arboretum (Burash), Myrica esculenta (Kafal), Aesculus nepalensis (Alder) etc. In this event, Dr. B. Mandal (Head of Virology Division), Dr. Sher Singh (Head of Temperate Animal Husbandry Division), Dr. Nitish Singh Kharayat (Scientist), Dr. Ashutosh Fular (Scientist), Rahul Panuu (T-9), Sunil Pal (T-3) with other workers took part in the plantation. The scientists from ICAR-CITH, Mukteswar also took part in the plantation programme. The whole programme was coordinated by Dr. Nidhi Sharma (Scientist, I/C Forest section) and Sh. B. S. Parihar (Deputy Ranger).

