Report of academic fest 2020-2021

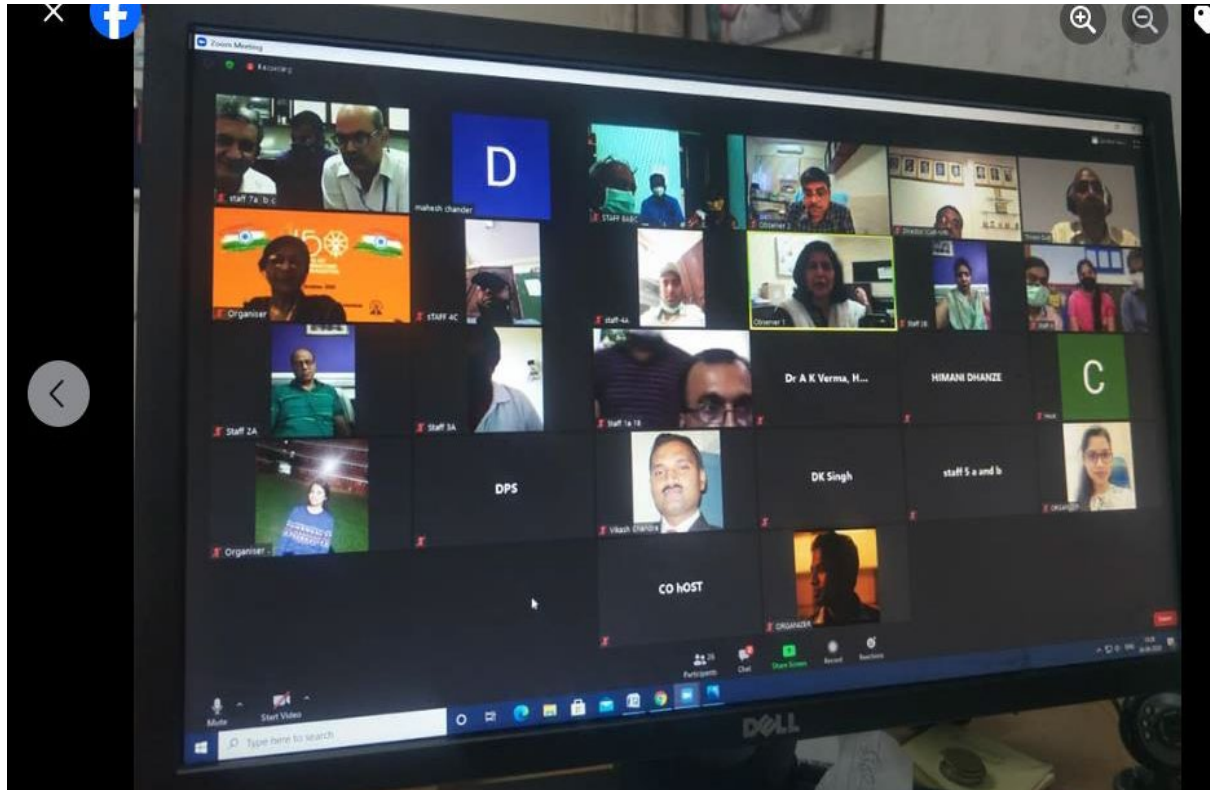

Academic fest was organized virtually at ICAR-IVRI Izatnagar on 30th September 2020 to mark birthanniversary of Mahatma Gandhi. Literary events were conducted online including debate, and quiz competitions for students of ICAR-IVRI. Due to the restrictions imposed during COVID-19, the program, was conducted on-line through zoom platform.

The program was graced by Padam Shri Professor Anil Kumar Gupta as chief guest of the function. He addressed the faculty and students of ICAR-IVRI and emphasized the importance of extension education system through the on-line presentation.

Followed by lecture of Professor Anil Kumar Gupta, debate competition and quiz competition were held for students of IVRI. The topic for the debate was “Relevance of Gandhian Philosophy and Principles in the present era” and total of 7 students debated on the topic.

The topic for quiz was “Gandhi’s Autobiography and freedom struggle”. A total of 25 students participated in quiz competition. In total we got entries of 81 participants in form of 32 teams within two days. Finally, we have selected 8 teams from staff side and 10 teams from students’ side comprising of 46 members for final competition.

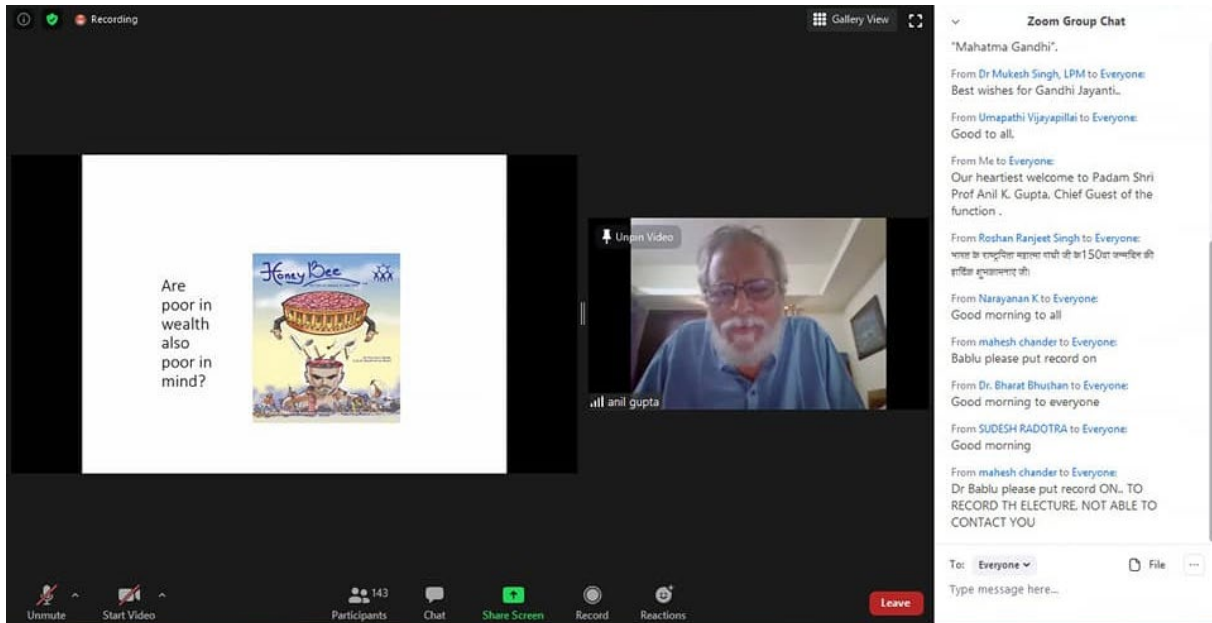

The events were coordinated by literary advisors Dr Himani Dhanze and Dr Asok Kumar of Student welfare office, ICAR-IVRI. All the faculty members and students attended the event online.
