Report of Cultural Events 2022-2023 (25.4.2023)

The cultural night was organized by the students of the Indian Veterinary Research Institute (IVRI) on the 25th of April, 2023, to celebrate the occasion of the ICAR Zonal Sports Tournament. This vibrant event took place in the Swami Vivekanand Auditorium at ICAR-IVRI in Izatnagar. The auditorium was abuzz with excitement as students from various parts of the country, alongside the esteemed faculty of IVRI, gathered to take part in the festivities.

The active participation and enthusiasm of the students were instrumental in making the programme a resounding success. The evening was elegantly hosted by two undergraduate students of ICAR-IVRI, Mr. Atul and Miss Renu Motwani, whose charismatic presence added charm to the event.

Saraswati Vandana performance by students of ICAR-IVRI (Dated: 25.4.2023)

A diverse array of performances marked the cultural night, showcasing the rich tapestry of Indian culture and the talents of IVRI students. The event commenced with traditional invocations, including a Saraswati Vandana and a Ganesh Vandana, seeking blessings for knowledge and prosperity. This was followed by an enthralling Lavani folk dance, representing the vibrant culture of Maharashtra, and a graceful Tripura folk dance that captivated the audience with its elegance. The evening continued with a variety of other performances, such as a duet dance, a western group dance, several solo dance performances, and a skit, all performed by the talented undergraduate, postgraduate, and PhD students of IVRI.

The seamless coordination of the event was ensured by Dr. V.P. Maruya and his dedicated team, including Dr. Himani Dhanze and Dr. Suman Talukder. Their meticulous planning and execution were pivotal in the smooth conduct of the program, making the cultural night an unforgettable experience for all attendees.

As the cultural night drew to a close, the atmosphere in the Swami Vivekanand Auditorium was filled with a sense of accomplishment. The final act was a grand group performance that brought together students from different years and backgrounds, symbolizing unity and the collaborative spirit of IVRI. The audience erupted into applause, appreciating the hard work and dedication of all the performers.

Mashup of classical and western music performed by ICAR- IVRI
students (Dated: 25.4.2023)

Following the final performance, the hosts, Mr. Atul and Miss Renu Motwani, invited Dr. V.P. Maurya and his team, Dr. Himani Dhanze and Dr. Suman Talukder, onto the stage. They expressed heartfelt gratitude to the coordinators for their invaluable contributions in making the evening a spectacular success.

The evening concluded with a group photograph session, capturing the joyous moments and the vibrant spirit of the cultural night. Students, faculty members, and coordinators mingled and shared their experiences, creating memories that would last a lifetime. The success of the event was evident in the smiles and laughter that filled the auditorium as everyone bid farewell, looking forward to the next occasion where they could come together to celebrate the rich cultural heritage and the strong bonds within the IVRI community.

Group Photograph of students participated in Punjabi folk Dance with Honourable Director, ICAR-IVRI (Dated: 25.4.2023)

As the audience dispersed, there was a palpable sense of pride and satisfaction. The cultural night had not only showcased the artistic talents of the students but also reinforced the values of unity, diversity, and collaboration that are at the heart of IVRI.
