Report on sports events 2020-21

Student Welfare Office organized Carom and Chess tournaments for the research students of IVRI from December 3-4, 2020. The events aimed to foster sportsmanship, strategic thinking, healthy competition and to reduce the stress of on-going COVID-19 pandemic among the students. All the matches were conducted in common room of Shalihotra hostel and students were advised to wear mask while playing. Only 2 players along with referee were allowed in the playing room.

Carom Tournament: A total of 6 students participated in carom tournament. The matches were played in a friendly yet competitive atmosphere, showcasing the players' skills in striking the coins into the pockets with precision and strategy. The matches progressed through several rounds, with each round intensifying the competition and excitement among the participants. Dr Akash Mote (M.V.Sc student) was the winner of Carom tournament.

Chess Tournament: Simultaneously, the Chess tournament attracted both boys and girls students, each displaying their strategic acumen and concentration on the chessboard. The matches were conducted in accordance with standard chess tournament rules, ensuring fairness and adherence to competitive norms. The players demonstrated impressive chess tactics, maneuvering their pieces strategically to gain the upper hand over their opponents. The tournament progressed through various rounds, each challenging the players to think critically and plan their moves carefully. Dr Faslu Rehmant AT (M.V.Sc student) won the Chess tournament.
